

Junior Accounts

About this Document

This document contains important information regarding product eligibility, features and benefits, and specific terms.

Who are these accounts suitable for?

Junior accounts are suitable for customers up to the age of 17 (inclusive).

Junior account ownership

Accounts opened in a Junior Customer's name are 'owned' by the Junior Customer.

MoneySense accounts are opened and operated by the Junior Customer aged 12 and over, with full access to transact.

The Junior Customer may choose to allow a parent, carer or guardian to be a signatory on the account with access to view and transact.

SuperSaver accounts are opened and operated by a parent, carer or guardian on behalf of the Junior Customer aged up to 17 years (inclusive).

The Junior Customer does not have access to transact on this account type until their 18th birthday.

On turning 18, MoneySense and SuperSaver accounts will convert to an Everyday account.

Accounts held 'In Trust'

A parent, carer or guardian may open an account 'In Trust' for a child. For these accounts opened 'In Trust', funds remain under the control of the parent, carer or guardian until they feel the funds can be managed by the child, or until the child turns 18.
